DREAM INDIA

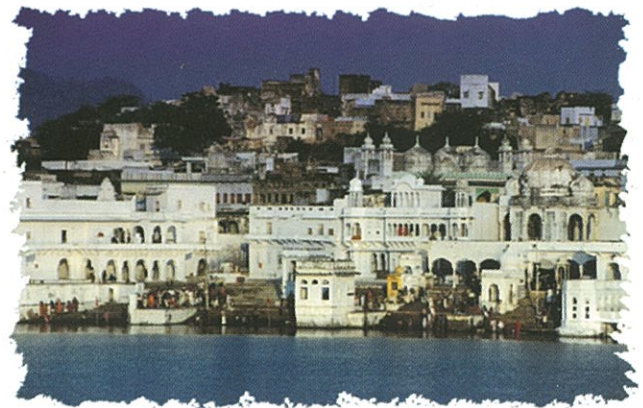

The camels of Pushkar

10 days / 9 nights - Delhi. Ajmer. Pushkar. Jaipur. Fatehpur Sikri. Agra

Pushkar, the quiet little town of eastern Rajasthan, is located 11 km from Ajmer, on the edge of a small and beautiful lake. Pushkar is a city of 400 temples and 52 bathing ghats. Pushkar prides itself on being the site of the only temple of the Hindu God of Creation, Brahma. Every November, Pushkar comes alive with the vibrancy and color of the famous Pushkar Fair and the full moon festivities at the Ghats. At other times of the year, its location at the heart of the main tourist circuit of Rajasthan, makes Pushkar the perfect destination for travellers to pause for breath and feel the magic of one of the most important pilgrimage centers in India. A visit to Pushkar will leave you with memories that will linger a lifetime.

Tigers in the Jungle

4 days / 3 nights - Delhi. Corbett National Park

Corbett National Park boasts of a rich natural heritage with its varied topography, diverse flora and fauna, the beauty of the meandering ramganga river and the splendour of its landscapes. The elusive Tiger, now the cynosure of every tourist questing eye, wild Elephants and Leopards are the main attractions, besides other mammal and bird species. One of the few national parks in India with basic lodging facilities in the heart of the jungle at Dhikala the setting is awesome and the location picturesque. We are fully adept in providing luxury in the wilds. The Elephant ride from Dhikala is the ultimate experience in wildlife viewing and provides the opportunity to shoot the tiger with a camera. Corbett National Park with over 600 different bird species is considered one of the true bird parks of the world. Raptors are of infinite variety and occasionally species of hawks and eagles appear, which tax the talent of the most gifted ornithologists. The Park is avid birdwatchers destination, Mangoli valley, Nainital and Pangot in the Kumaon region are unmistakably the most remarkable areas for higher Himalayan birds.
